Chief Alldred then reviewed the May 2010 Levy Activities.

Mr. Benson stated that he is getting complaints from people who normally vote at the Township building.

A brief discussion took place regarding the change in polling locations.

Mr. Benson asked Laurie Rohrbach to look into the Township building still being a polling location.

Mr. Pettit stated that people are still asking if this Levy is for a new building.

Mr. Comer asked if the Township would be able to put on their message board that this Levy is not for a new building. He added that we should also put a different message on each side of the board so you see one message, as you are coming and another as you are leaving.

A brief discussion took place regarding the placement of the Levy signs.

OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE MEMBER'S REPORTS:

Mr. Pettit questioned when the soft billing would start, Mr. Benson replied that it would not start until September 1st and if all parties are in agreement.

All agreed to have the next meeting on April 19th.
